No officers were among the Yankees taken by our army on Thursday, which is a fact too significant to escape re nark. If taken, they have concealed their rank by the substitution of privates' clothing, which is easy enough nong so many, and thus the much vaunted lex tolienis falls to the ground. If such is the fact, that there are officers among them in diguise, the utter absurdity of the retaliatory order of the President is too plainly revealed

There is no son why our laws for the protection of the lives and property of our citizens should be abrogated because there government is end-avoring to legalize sheft, murder, robbery, arson and insurrection, by re-corting to such barbarous measures in their war against enit our own government to place thieves and insurection sets, taken on our saio, on the footing of prisoners of war. The war power granted by the States to the Confederate government for the common defence does not authorize that government to disregard our statute laws enacted for our security. Nor does the cartel recently agreed upon between the United States and our governmen stand in the way of a compliance with Gov. Letcher's templated by the signers of that instrument that it should shield felons—it was simply for an exchange of prisoners of war. A negro thief, an inciter of insurred tion, is a felon under our statute laws, and whether the crime was committed before or after his capture as a and punishment. We hope the question will be pressed upon the government, and that our Confederate military orities will be instructed to turn over all white me against whom there is good ground for suspecting that they have been engaged in violating the statute laws of the States in which they are captured, to the civil an

Simeon Draper, Esq., the War Department's Commis-loner to supervise the business of collecting and forwarding straggling officers to their respective regiments, has nothing to do with granting discharges and leaves of ab-zence. Letters on that subject should be addressed to the Adjutant General only.

Mr. Draper has received many letters asking him to obtain discharges, leaves of absence, &c. As this is not a part of the business belonging to his office, he has sent hem to the Adjutant General. The great number of such letters prevents their being replied to individually This is the rule of the department:leave of absence not exceeding twenty days may be granted to commissioned officers by the commander of any army or department, of direct when the certificate of a medical officer shall w beyond doubt that a change of location is necessary to save life or prevent permanent disability. If an offi-cer cannot return to his duty, when his leave is out, he need not apply for an extension, as no order will be issaid granting one. He must account for his absence by sending to the Adjutant General and to his regiment comnander a proper medical certificate, and when he returns scertain if he had sufficient cause for absence. THE SKEDADDLERS.

Operations of the Runaway Brigade. As there were no steamers leaving yesterday the pelie and a comparatively easy time of it. There have been no arrents of any account reported, but the vigilant eyes of our Provest guard are always on the alert, and no perser an excape them who has any latention of stealing away rom the country. Both in Brooklyn and New York this sternal watchfulners is kept up. People were to be found n hundreds, previous to the farming of Secretary Stan ton's latest order in relation to "ekedaddlers," making all the preparations imaginable to verify the Scriptures and "take up their bed and walk;" but the golden visions of those fleethoted cowards were doomed to be dissipated, and they had the rather disagreeable duty of again unpacking their hundred and one articles of household conforts. And so much the better. There are some that to be found who laugh at this injunction put mon their emigration prodivities, and imagine that they can escape from the dounty when they choose to risk the attempt. But these people are also mistaken. When drafting commences it would but be a just visitation of Providence that these men should be the first to go, and learn courage and love of country on the field of battle if they cannot do so at home. The German, French and Prussian, and other foreign Consciate's offices were well patronized yesterday, and presuports and casings of pretection from all countries on the globe but that of the United States were easerly demanded. It of those fleetfucted cowards were doomed to be disthat of the United States were eagerly demanded. It would be well to send these people into the very interior of Africa, and let them seek protection from the gentless of that classic neighborhood.

The British Consul's Office.

TURN FROM ENGLAND TO RESUME HIS DUTIES. Yesterday, as well as on Monday and Sunday last, the excitement which had been caused at the office of Mr. Archibald, the British Consul, was continued without much intermission, and the auxiety of the bundreds as sembled to obtain paraports was very pressing.

Monday and yesterday the office was scarcely allowed to be opened until it was filled to sufficiation, and not less than from 700 to 800 persons were present. Yesterday morning Mr. Archibald, British Consul-in-Chief, arrived in the Cupard mail steamship sectia, from England; and, bedays, lest no time in getting up to his office. On seeing ing orders, which were posted on both the outside and inside deeps:—

British subjects who have never been naturalized abread, are required by law to deposit the proof of their nationality with the County Clerk at the City Hall. This will render them exempt from military service. No cortificate of any kind from the County is required by law.

Yesterday the granting of passports was carried on more rapidly, as better, order and regularity seemed to prevail. On making the noceanry inquiries as to where all those who are claiming English protection from drafting intend to proceed, we were told that this greater portion, so far, were destined for Ireland and Germany; many were going to California, and a goodly number to the Canadae. Be this as it may, there can be no doubt whatever, but they will make a location somewhere before they submit to take up arms in defence of the Northern States, where they have lived so long, realized such alternages for the abedred and children, large numbers having gone for in making an independence for a future day.

To fill up the old regiments to their tult manimum number will require at least fitty four thousand. It this number should voinnteer in the facts before the draft is made, there would be no draft. If collisionents should continue for thirty days as they have for the last ten this could be done. But it can be done, it many localities, in the twenty days which will interest before the draft is "made." If it is, those localities will escape the draft. Under this arrangement our young men will be stimulated to presente the work of retruiting. Any three men who can raise a company can secure commissions as its officers, if they are competent for the peations they assume. And those localities which desire to escape the odium of a draft have only to robinately fill up their quota of the 600,000 men called for, before the last of September, to accomplish what they desire.
